Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Recipient shall protect

Discloser’s Confidential Information with the same degree of care it uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature and importance, but with no less than reasonable care. Recipient shall promptly notify Discloser of any misuse or misappropriation of Confidential Information that comes to Recipient’s attention. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Recipient may disclose Confidential Information as required by applicable law or by proper legal or governmental authority. Nothing herein shall prevent Recipient from disclosing Confidential Information to the extent necessary to its auditors or legal advisors; provided that (i) Recipient has informed its auditors and legal advisors of the nondisclosure and other obligations of Recipient under an Agreement; and (ii) the Recipient will be responsible for any actions of its auditors or legal advisors that would breach the terms of an Agreement if such auditors or legal advisors were Parties to such Agreement.

5.3 Injunction. Recipient agrees that breach of this Section 5 would cause Discloser irreparable injury, for which monetary damages would not provide adequate compensation, and that in addition to any other remedy, Discloser will be entitled to injunctive relief against such breach or threatened breach, without proving actual damage or posting a bond or other security.

5.4 Termination and Return. The obligations of Section 5.2 above will survive the termination of an Agreement for a period of five (5) years; provided, however, that such obligations related to Confidential Information constituting Discloser’s trade secrets will continue so long as such information remains subject to trade secret protection pursuant to applicable law. Upon termination of an Agreement or upon request of Discloser, Recipient shall promptly (but no later than sixty (60) days following the date of such request) account for and return all tangible evidences or embodiments of Discloser’s Confidential Information to Discloser, or certify, in writing, the destruction thereof, except that each Party may retain an archived copy to be used only in case of a dispute arising under an Agreement, and in such case only to the extent disclosure is reasonably necessary in connection with any dispute, claim, or action between the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligations to return or destroy Confidential Information shall not cover information that is maintained on routine computer system back up storage devices; in each case so long as such retained or backed up information is kept confidential in accordance with the confidentiality obligations hereunder.

official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (b) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

5.5.2 Use of Trade Secret Information in Anti-Retaliation Lawsuit. An individual who files a lawsuit for retaliation by an employer for reporting a suspected violation of law may disclose the trade secret to the attorney of the individual and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the individual (a) files any document containing the trade secret under seal; and (b) does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

5.6 Retention of Rights. No Agreement shall transfer ownership of Confidential Information or grant a license thereto. Except to the extent another section of an Agreement specifically provides to the contrary, Discloser will retain all right, title, and interest in and to all Confidential Information. Neither Party shall reverse engineer, reverse translate, disassemble or decompile any computer programs, appliances, prototypes or other tangible objects that embody the other Party's Confidential Information or that are provided to the Party under an Agreement.

5.7 Feedback. Nothing in an Agreement or in the Parties' dealings arising out of or related to an Agreement will restrict NeoSystems' right to use, profit from, disclose, publish, keep secret, or otherwise exploit Feedback (as defined below), without compensating or crediting Client or the individual providing such Feedback, except to the limited extent that Section 5 (Confidentiality) governs Feedback that constitutes Client's Confidential Information. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5 (Confidentiality), Client may not designate Feedback as its Confidential Information to the extent that such Feedback relates to NeoSystems or its Products or Services. ("Feedback" refers to any suggestion or idea for improving or otherwise modifying any of NeoSystems' Products or Services.)

6.2 No Work for Hire. No modifications or changes made to the Products or Services by NeoSystems pursuant to Client's request shall be considered as constituting, producing, or resulting in a "work for hire" under the copyright laws of the United States. NeoSystems shall for all purposes be deemed the author and originator of all Products and Services directly resulting from any work performed by NeoSystems pursuant to an Agreement.

6.3 License. During the term of an Agreement, subject to payment of Fees and Expenses by Client as provided therein, NeoSystems grants, and Client accepts, a limited, personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-assignable, revocable license without the right to sublicense, to use the Licensed Materials and NeoSystems Tools owned or licensed by NeoSystems for its own internal business purposes during and pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and subject to the terms of any license agreement between NeoSystems and any Third Party Vendor; provided, however, that Client may not (a) disclose or make available to third parties any portion of such NeoSystems Tools or Licensed Materials without NeoSystems' advance written permission; (b) copy or duplicate such NeoSystems Tools or Licensed Materials; (c) reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or recompile such NeoSystems Tools or Licensed Materials; or (d) modify or make derivative works of such NeoSystems Tools or Licensed Materials. "Use" as used in this Section 6.3 shall mean the ability to run, execute and display the Licensed Programs for internal business purposes only in object code form, only in the United States, and only on the hardware on which it is installed for the sole purpose of enabling Client to receive the Services. Client acknowledges that the NeoSystems Tools and Licensed Materials are copyrighted, that title to such NeoSystems Tools and Licensed Materials remains with NeoSystems or its suppliers, and that the content and design of such NeoSystems Tools and Licensed Materials are valuable trade secrets. Any license granted hereunder may be terminated by NeoSystems in the event of Client's breach of the terms of the license or an Agreement, including without limitation any Default under Section 3.1. Upon termination of an Agreement, the licenses granted in this Section 6.3 will terminate, Client shall cease all use of the NeoSystems Tools and Licensed Materials, and each Party shall promptly return to the other Party any property belonging to such other Party.

6.4 IP Rights to the System. During the term of an Agreement, Client may access and use the System pursuant to an Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, NeoSystems retains all right, title, and interest in and to the System, including without limitation all software used to provide the System, all graphics and user interfaces reproduced through the System, and any and all Intellectual Property Rights therein. An Agreement does not grant Client any Intellectual Property Rights or license in or to the System or any of its components. Client recognizes that the System and its components are protected by copyright and other laws.

6.5 License of Server Content. If a Party breaches this Section 8, the breaching Party agrees to pay the aggrieved Party an amount equal to one (1) times the first year total compensation of said employee, and the aggrieved Party may seek equitable or injunctive relief as well as damages in a court of competent jurisdiction. The aggrieved Party shall be entitled to collect from the other Party all costs incurred in connection with such dispute, including attorneys' fees.

THIS LIMITATION OF LIABILITY APPLIES REGARDLESS OF WHETHER A PARTY KNEW OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES AND REGARDLESS OF WHETHER ANY REMEDY FAILS OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE. CLIENT'S PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS UNDER AN AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE CONSIDERED NEOSYSTEMS' LOST PROFITS OR LOSS OF REVENUE.

10.2 Limitation on Direct Damages. IN NO EVENT WILL NEOSYSTEMS' AGGREGATE LIABILITY FOR ANY AND ALL CLAIMS UNDER AN AGREEMENT EXCEED THE TOTAL FEES PAID TO NEOSYSTEMS UNDER THE AGREEMENT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM IN THE IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING 12 MONTH PERIOD PRIOR TO THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM. THE LIMITATION OF LIABILITY UNDER THIS SECTION 10.2 IS CUMULATIVE AND NOT PER INCIDENT. THE LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND REMEDIES IN

THIS SECTION 10 ARE A REFLECTION OF THE RISKS ASSUMED BY THE PARTIES IN ORDER FOR NEOSYSTEMS TO PROVIDE AND FOR CLIENT TO OBTAIN ACCESS TO THE SERVICES AND PRODUCTS FOR THE SPECIFIED FEES.

10.3 Scope and Exclusions. For the avoidance of doubt, NeoSystems' liability limits and other rights set forth in this Section 10 apply likewise to NeoSystems Affiliates. The liabilities limited in this Section 10 shall not apply to (a) Fees payable under an Agreement; (b) claims for which either party is insured; (c) Infringement Claims; (d) Third Party Claims; (e) liquidated damages; (f) attorneys' fees and costs; (g) breach of government restricted rights; or (h) claims arising from a breach of Section 5 (Confidentiality).

11. INDEMNIFICATION.

11.1 Indemnification by NeoSystems. Subject to the remainder of this Section 11.1, NeoSystems will defend or settle any third party claim of infringement of Intellectual Property Rights enforceable in the United States resulting from Client's use of NeoSystems' Products or Services under an Agreement during the term of the applicable Agreement ("Infringement Claim"), and indemnify Client from the resulting costs and damages finally awarded against Client to a third party by a court of competent jurisdiction or government agency, or agreed to by NeoSystems in a written settlement, provided that Client (a) provides NeoSystems with prompt notice of any Infringement Claim; (b) allows NeoSystems, at its option, sole control of the defense and settlement of the Infringement Claim; and (c) reasonably cooperates in response to NeoSystems' requests for assistance with regard to the Infringement Claim. NeoSystems' obligations set forth in the preceding sentence include retention and payment of attorneys and payment of court costs, as well as settlement at NeoSystems' expense and payment of judgments. NeoSystems' indemnity obligation set forth in this Section 11.1 will be excused to the extent Client's failure to provide prompt notice or to reasonably cooperate prejudices the defense. NeoSystems will not, without Client's written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, enter into any settlement of any Infringement Claim that obligates Client to admit any wrongdoing or liability or subjects it to any ongoing affirmative obligations.

11.1.1 NeoSystems Obligations. If a Product or Service becomes or in NeoSystems' opinion is likely to become the subject of an Infringement Claim, NeoSystems will, at its option and expense (a) secure the rights necessary for Client to continue using the Product or Service; or (b) replace or modify the Product or Service to make it non-infringing without materially reducing its functionality as set forth in an Agreement; or (c) terminate the Product or Service and refund any prepaid Fees therefor on a pro rata basis.

11.1.2 Exclusions. NeoSystems shall have no obligation under this Section 11 or otherwise with respect to any Infringement Claim based on (a) combination of the Products or Services with non-NeoSystems products or services or any Data, including Client Data and/or any third party Data; (b) use of the Products or Services for a purpose or in a manner not permitted by an Agreement; (c) any modification to the Products or Services made without NeoSystems' express written approval; (d) any claim that relates to open source software or freeware technology or any derivative or other adaptation thereof that is not embedded by NeoSystems into the Products or Services; (e) Client's failure to incorporate updates or upgrades, or Client's failure or refusal to approve NeoSystems' performance of the incorporation of such updates or upgrades, to the Products and Services that would have avoided the alleged infringement; (f) NeoSystems' modifications of the Products or Services in compliance with specifications provided by Client; (g) Client's use of Third Party Components; (h) any Products or Services provided on a no-charge basis; or (i) the acts or omissions of Client.

11.1.3 Sole Remedy. This Section 11.1 states Client's sole and exclusive remedy and NeoSystems' entire liability for any Infringement Claims.

11.2 Indemnification by Client. Client will defend and indemnify NeoSystems and any NeoSystems Affiliates against any third party claim, suit, or proceeding arising out of, related to, or alleging: (a) infringement or violation of any Intellectual Property Rights or privacy or confidentiality rights by written material, images, logos or other Client Data uploaded into the System; (b) exposure or disclosure of personally identifiable information or other private information (whether such Data belongs to Client, to one of Client's customers or users, or to other third parties), caused by an act or omission of Client; (c) that use of the System through Client's account harasses, defames, or defrauds a third party or violates the CAN-Spam Act of 2003 or any other law or restriction on electronic advertising; (d) alleged or actual misuse of, or failure to use the Products or Services, including without limitation claims by Client's users, subscribers, employees, or customers; (e) injury to or death of any individual, or any loss of or damage to real or tangible or intangible property, caused by the act or omission of Client or any of its agents, subcontractors, or employees; (f) Client's breach or misrepresentation with respect to Client Data; or (g) Client's breach of the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 ("GDPR") or other applicable law (collectively "Third Party Claims"), provided that NeoSystems (i) provides Client with prompt notice of any Third Party Claims; and (ii) reasonably cooperates in response to Client's requests for assistance with regard to Third Party Claims. Client's obligations set forth in the preceding sentence include retention and payment of attorneys and payment of court costs, as well as settlement at Client's expense and payment of judgments. Client's indemnity obligation set forth in this Section 11.2 will be excused to the extent NeoSystems' failure to provide prompt notice or to reasonably cooperate prejudices the defense. Client will not, without NeoSystems' written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, enter into any settlement of any Third Party Claim that obligates NeoSystems to admit any wrongdoing or liability or subjects it to any ongoing affirmative obligations. Client agrees to obtain and maintain sufficient insurance to meet its indemnity obligations hereunder.

12. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

12.1 If a dispute arises between the Parties, the Party initiating such dispute will notify the other Party in writing (“Dispute Notice”) and provide a reasonable level of detail as to the nature of the dispute, including any specific performance demanded by the Party making such claim. Following the tender of such notice, the Parties will work in good faith to resolve the dispute through successive escalation as follows:

12.1.1 First escalation: Upon receipt of the Dispute Notice, the Parties’ respective account or project management representatives will communicate promptly and make diligent and sustained efforts to resolve the dispute within ten (10) calendar days.

12.1.2 Second escalation: If the Parties’ respective account/project management representatives are unsuccessful in resolving the dispute, the Parties will promptly escalate the dispute to their respective senior management representatives (VP level or above), who will make diligent and sustained efforts to resolve the dispute within twenty (20) calendar days from the receipt of the Dispute Notice.

12.1.3 Final escalation: If the Parties’ respective senior management representatives are unsuccessful in resolving the dispute, the Parties will promptly escalate the dispute to their respective C-level executive management. Each Party represents and warrants that its designated executive has full power and authority to legally bind their respective company. The Parties’ respective executive designees will make diligent and sustained efforts to resolve the dispute within thirty (30) calendar days from the receipt of the Dispute Notice.

12.2 All Dispute Notice discussions will occur and conclude within the thirty (30) calendar day escalation process from the date of receipt of the initial Dispute Notice. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, for disputes relating to Client’s failure to pay any Fees and Expenses under an Agreement that are not resolved within the thirty (30) calendar day period, NeoSystems may proceed to litigate such non-payment disputes in a court of law in accordance with subsection 13.10 (Governing Law and Venue,) and shall be entitled to collect from Client all costs incurred in connection with such dispute, including attorneys’ fees (including allocable costs of in-house counsel).

12.3 All other disputes arising under an Agreement will be settled by binding arbitration in Fairfax County, Virginia, or another location mutually agreeable to the Parties. The arbitration will be conducted on a confidential basis pursuant to the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. Any decision or award as a result of such arbitration will be in writing and will provide an explanation for all conclusions of law and fact and will include the assessment of costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys’ fees (including allocable costs of in-house counsel). Any such arbitration will be conducted before an arbitrator experienced in the subject matter of an Agreement and will include a written record of the arbitration hearing. An award of arbitration may be confirmed in a court of competent jurisdiction. The prevailing Party shall be entitled to collect from the other Party all costs incurred in connection with such arbitrated dispute, including filing fees, arbitrator’s fees, and attorneys’ fees (including allocable costs of in-house counsel). If it becomes necessary for either Party to compel arbitration or to enforce an arbitration award, that Party may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction and the prevailing Party shall recover from the other Party its costs and expenses, including court costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees (including allocable costs of in-house counsel).

13. ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

13.1 Amendment. NeoSystems may amend these Terms and Conditions from time to time by posting an amended version thereof on the NeoSystems web site. Such amendment will become effective thirty (30) days after such publication. Client’s continued use of the Products or Services after such thirty (30) day period will be deemed acceptance of such amended Terms and Conditions. It is Client’s responsibility to check the NeoSystems web site periodically for modifications of these Terms and Conditions. Except as otherwise provided herein, an Agreement may not be modified except in a written agreement signed by authorized representatives of the Parties.

13.2 Assignment. All Agreements will bind and inure to the benefit of each Party’s permitted successors and assigns. Neither Party may assign an Agreement, in whole or in part, without the other Party’s prior written consent; provided however that either Party may assign an Agreement to an acquirer of all or substantially all of its stock or assets. Any other attempt to assign an Agreement without such consent will be null and void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Client expressly acknowledges that NeoSystems may engage contractors to contribute to or assist with NeoSystems’ obligations under an Agreement, and Client expressly agrees that such engagement of contractors is permitted and will not constitute an assignment.

13.3 Severability. Should a provision of an Agreement be found unenforceable or invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the provision will be stricken and the remaining provisions will be construed to give as much effect as possible to the remaining valid or enforceable provisions.

13.4 Waiver. No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right, power or remedy under an Agreement will operate as a waiver. No waiver will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by an officer of the waiving Party. No waiver of a breach of an Agreement will constitute a waiver of any other breach of an Agreement.

13.5 Necessary Actions. Each Party agrees to prepare, execute, and deliver to the other Party such other instruments, documents, and statements, and to take such other action as may be reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of an Agreement.

13.6 Counterparts. Agreements may be executed in any number of separate counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all such counterparts will constitute a single instrument.

13.7 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, nothing in any Agreement confers upon any person or entity, other than the Parties, any legal or equitable right, benefit, or remedy of any nature.

13.8 Entire Agreement. These Terms and Conditions together with any applicable Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations, and discussions, whether oral or written, between the Parties with respect to such subject matter. Neither Party has relied upon any such prior or contemporaneous communications. The Parties expressly disclaim the right to claim the enforceability or effectiveness of any oral modifications to any Agreement, or any oral amendments thereto based solely on course of dealing, waiver, release, estoppel, or other similar legal theory. The terms of these Terms and Conditions shall supersede any conflicting or additional terms, including without limitation any and all Client-supplied terms that may be different from or additional to these Terms and Conditions, in any form, including without limitation the terms and conditions of any purchase order or other purchasing-related document or communication issued by Client relating to the Products or Services.

13.9 Construction. The Parties agree that the terms of any Agreement result from negotiations between them. No Agreement will be construed in favor of or against either Party by reason of authorship.

13.10 Governing Law and Venue. All Agreements will be governed solely by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without reference to (a) any conflicts of law principle that would apply the substantive laws of another jurisdiction to the parties' rights or duties; (b) the 1980 United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods; or (c) other international laws. Each Party consents to the personal and exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts of Fairfax County, the Commonwealth of Virginia as the sole and exclusive venue for any legal action or proceeding arising from any Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Parties hereby agree to waiver of a jury trial.

13.11 Survival. The following sections of these Terms and Conditions shall survive the expiration or termination of any Agreement: Section 2 (Invoices and Payment), Section 4 (Warranties), Section 5 (Confidentiality), Section 6 (Intellectual Property), Section 8 (Non-Solicitation), Section 10 (Limitation of Liability), Section 11 (Indemnification), Section 12 (Dispute Resolution), Section 13.8 (Entire Agreement), and any other provision of an Agreement that must survive to fulfill its essential purpose.

13.12 Export Matters. Client shall not (a) permit any third party to access or use the System in violation of any U.S. law or regulation; or (b) export the Products or otherwise remove them from the United States except in compliance with all applicable U.S. laws and regulations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Client shall not permit any third party to access or use the System in, or export the Products to, a country subject to United States embargo.

13.13 Headings. The section headings in an Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only, are not substantive, and shall not be interpreted to define, describe, modify, or otherwise limit the interpretation or scope of any provision of an Agreement.

13.14 Notices. Any notice or communication under an Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been given if delivered personally or by courier service, United States mail, or email with confirmation of receipt at the addresses set forth below:
